Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, March 14, 2012, marks the fifth annual Registered Dietitian Day, reminding everyone that a registered dietitian is the best source of practical, affordable, and credible food and nutrition information; and,

Whereas, Registered dietitians are the food and nutrition experts who can translate the science of nutrition into practical solutions for healthy living; and,

Whereas, Registered dietitians have degrees in nutrition, dietetics, public health, or a related field from well-respected, accredited colleges and universities, and have completed an internship and passed an examination; and,

Whereas, Registered dietitians work throughout the community in hospitals, schools, public health clinics, nursing homes, fitness centers, food management, food industry, universities, research, and private practice; and,

Whereas, Registered dietitians are advocates for advancing the nutritional status of South Dakotans and people around the world:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 14, 2012, as in South Dakota, and encourage citizens to recognize the contributions of registered dietitians and express appreciation for their commitment to promoting science-based nutrition in the hope of achieving optimum health for both today and tomorrow.

REGISTERED DIETITIANS DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State